

IN A LIGHTER VEIN.

MRS. D. decided to move into the country for the summer last year and was both surprised and delighted to learn that an old friend of hers resided in the same place. Meeting this friend on the street, Mrs. D. said:

"I am quite a near neighbor of yours now. I have taken a house by the river."

"Oh, I do hope you will drop in some day," replied the friend.

A Philadelphia business man tells this one on himself:

"You know in this city there are two telephone companies," he said, "and in my office I have a telephone of each company. Last week I hired a new office boy, and one of his duties was to answer the telephone. The other day when one of the bells rang he answered the call and then came in and told me I was wanted on the phone by my wife."

"Which one?" I inquired quickly, thinking of the two telephones, of course.

"Please, sir," stammered the boy, "I don't know how many you have."

A builder in Pennsylvania, having heard that the men did not start work at the proper time, thought he would drop down about 6:30 one morning and see. Going up the yard, he caught sight of a joiner standing smoking, with his kit not even opened. Simply asking his name, which he found to be Jake Robertson, he called him into the office and, handing him four days' pay, told him to leave at once.

After having seen the man clear of the yard he went up to the foreman and told him he had made an example of Jake Robertson by paying him off for not starting to work at the proper time.

"Jumping Jupiter, sir," ejaculated the foreman, "that chap was only looking for a job!"—New York World.

A Natural Sequence.

Mabel—Would you believe it, auntie, two men followed us down to the pier?

Marian—Yes, auntie, every step of the way.

Aunt—How did you know?

Mabel—We saw them every time we looked back.

Marian—Yes, auntie, and they followed us on the boat.

Aunt—What makes you think they were following you?

Mabel—Because we noticed them watching us every time we turned our heads.

Aunt—Ah, I thought your heads were turned!—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Improvement.

"What advice did your father give you when you left home?"

"He told me to saw wood and say nothing."

"Did you do as he said?"

"No, sir," replied the politician. "I have found that it is better to saw wood and talk."—Detroit Free Press.

Foolish Man!

He doesn't believe that advertisements tell the truth.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Wasted on Him.

Miss Hicks—I hear you called upon Miss Tuttle the other night. Did she show you her birthday presents?

Mr. Staylate—Only a parlor clock her father had given her. She called my attention to it several times and remarked that she thought it was slow.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Well Stocked.

"They say the Widow Longgreen can think of nothing but money."

"Well, she has a remarkably well stocked mind."

"Well stocked?"

"Yes, a million and a quarter in bank stock at 250 above par."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Peculiar Case.

Grace—But she couldn't think of marrying anybody so dreadfully unconventional.

Helen—And is he, really?

Grace—Why, yes. Why, when he proposed he didn't tell her he couldn't live without her!—Baltimore News.

Sick of His Bargain.

She—He had a long sickness, you say?

He—Yes, and has since married the nurse.

"What is the result?"

"Oh, he's sicker now than he was before."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Motto Contradicted.

"Pay as you go," said the bustling man. "That's my motto."

"Don't believe a word of it," answered the man who is constantly running into debt. "If my paying and going kept pace I'd be walking backward."—Washington Star.

By Special Arrangement with Wadhams & Kerr Bros. THE ASTORIAN has secured a large quantity of their

FAMOUS ECONOMY FRUIT JARS

One of which, together with a Booklet of Recipes, will be given with each 25-cent or higher want ad. inserted in either The Daily or The Sunday Astorian.

What Mr. Fred Dresser has to say about the ECONOMY JAR:

Kerr Glass Manufacturing Company, Portland, Oregon.

Gentlemen: Referring to the ECONOMY FRUIT JAR, we are pleased to say that we have been selling them for three years.

The first year we ordered three gross, the second year ten gross, and this year our order calls for twenty-five gross.

We believe that within a few years they will be the only jar in use; first, because the quality of the jar far exceeds all others; second, the jar is sanitary, having a wide mouth, therefore easily cleaned.

The cover is as sanitary as the glass itself, while the cover on many other jars are made of zinc, which produces poison when in contact with fruit and vegetables.

The absolute certainty of every ECONOMY JAR sealing makes it the ideal jar for canning purposes. We bespeak a great future for the ECONOMY JAR. We are very truly yours,

F. DRESSER & CO.
